IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mrs. Joel T. Morris who died October 30, 1968.

Safely and tenderly she trod this earth,
With her good nature and loving heart,
We miss her now and forever will.
But God knew best, and it was his will.
Sadly missed by her children, in-laws, grandchildren and sister. 10-30-1t

In memory of my sister, Mrs. Nellie Richardson Kress, who passed away nine years ago, October 25, 1969.

Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dearly loved by all,
It was a bitter grief, a shock
Severe, to part with one I loved so dear,
Sadly missed by sister, Mrs. Alese Cumby. 10-30-1p

In loving memory of my husband, T. Randolph Gilbert, who departed this life, October 30, 1965.

A happy home I once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still;
But death has left loneliness
The world can never fill.

Before my eyes your faded.
Growing weaker, and patiently
Suffering everyday,

It was on a Saturday morn,
One I shall never forget,
When God came and whispered
I must take you away.

To hour grave I often go,
Flowers I place with loving care
I feel that you are near me
As I sadly linger there.
Sadly missed by wife, Katie. 10-30-1p

Q. I receive my room and meals at college free of charge for working in the dining hall. If there any tax on this?

A. The fair market value of room and board received as compensation for work is usually taxable income. If this plus any other income you have amounts to $600 or more for the year, you will have to file a tax return.

Q. This is the first year my income from wages will be high enough so that I'll have to pay tax when I file my return. Is there anything I can do to reduce the amount of tax that I will pay at the end of the year?

A. An increase in the amount withheld from your wages will reduce the chances of having additional tax to pay when you file your 1969 return. Your withholding can be increased by not claiming all your withholding exemptions or by having additional amounts withheld through an agreement with your employer.

Poster Contest

The 18th annual KEEP VIRGINIA GREEN poster contest, with $2,500 in prizes for students, schools, and teachers, is now underway. It will continue through December 20, by which time all posters must be submitted. The contest is open to all students in the 1st through 12th grades of any school in Virginia.

The theme of this year's contest is "Pleasure and Profit – from Timberland." Accordingly, posters should illustrate one or more of the many ways in which we derive both pleasure and profit from our timberlands. This could involve such activities as hunting, fishing, hiking, camping, swimming, picnicking, or bird-watching on forest lands where timber is being grown as a crop or where forest products have been, or are being harvested.

There are a total of 451 student prizes, the top one being $200 cash. In addition, the winning poster will be reproduced in full color on the 1970 KVG bookcovers which will be distributed to approximately one-third of a million Virginia students next fall. Other prizes have been established for each of the lower eight grades, so that all students will be participating within their age bracket.

As was the case last year, two prizes of $100 each have been provided for teachers. These will go to those art instructors or teachers who are deemed to have brought about the greatest and most effective student participation in the below grade school and high school divisions, respectively. Other awards of $100 each will go to the top school in both the grade school and high school divisions. School awards are determined by a point system based on the number and quality of posters submitted.

This KVG poster contest is sponsored by VIRGINIA FORESTS, Inc., in cooperatim with the Virginia Division of Forestry. Its purpose is to create a better understanding of the importance of the forest and related resources of Virginia. Further details may be obtained by writing to VIRGINIA FORESTS, Inc., 301 E. Franklin Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219, or by contacting personnel of the Virginia Division of Forestry.

FFA Chapter Receives National Award

Thomas Franklin, president of the Appomattox FFA Chapter, is pictured showing Larry Ferguson, Curtis Robinson, and R. B. Hamlin, the ninth National FFA Chapter Award received by the chapter for outstanding achievement. Thomas attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, during October, and was presented the award by the National FFA president, Charles Hankon of Cornelius, Oregon. The award this year was the Gold Emblem, highest achievement that a local FFA chapter may receive. The Appomattox chapter was declared the most outstanding chapter in the State of Virginia for 1969. This was the third consecutive year that the chapter has been honored with a Golden Emblem Award, and places the chapter among the top sixty chapters throughout the Nation. Allen Booth, a June graduate of Appomattox High School, served as president for the period covered by the award.

Banks Largest Lenders To Virginia Farmers

Virginia banks were providing farmers with more credit and other financial services than any other lenders at the below grade school and high school divisions, respectively. Other awards of $100 each will go to the top school in both the grade school and high school divisions. School awards are determined by a point system based on the number and quality of posters submitted.

This KVG poster contest is sponsored by VIRGINIA FORESTS, Inc., in cooperatim with the Virginia Division of Forestry. Its purpose is to create a better understanding of the importance of the forest and related resources of Virginia. Further details may be obtained by writing to VIRGINIA FORESTS, Inc., 301 E. Franklin Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219, or by contacting personnel of the Virginia Division of Forestry.

Based on the 28th annual farm lending summary of the Agricultural Committee of The American Bankers Association, Mr. Hunter reported that at the beginning of the year, Virginia banks were helping farmers with $165 million in loans, 4 per cent more than a year previous. This total included $84 million in production loans and $81 million in farm mortgages. At the same time, $39 million in farm loans was held by life insurance companies; $91 million by the Federal Land Banks; $44 million by Production Credit Association; and $7 million in nonreal estate loans, plus $4 million in real estate loans by the Farmers Home Administration. About 62 per cent of the nonreal estate credit extended by lending institutions to Virginia farmers came from banks.

Mr. Hunter said that "bankers in Virginia are conscious of the large capital investments required in agriculture today and are making a concerted effort through improved lending programs to meet these changing credit demands of the state's farmers."

The increased use of credit by farmers, according to Mr. Hunter, has been accompanied by a substantial gain in the total assets of farm families. Therefore, in the aggregate, the equity position of farmers, contrary to public opinion, is being maintained at a satisfactory level. Nationally, farm families have 243 billion of their own funds invested in agriculture. This represents 82 per cent of the total capital requirements of farmers.

Mr. Hunter stressed the importance of farmers and bankers working closely together to improve farm financial arrangements.

At End Of Day

By F. D. Flynn

Is anyone happier because you came his way?
Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?

The day is almost over and its toiling time through.
Did you waste the day or lose it,
Or was it carelessly spent?
Did you leave a word of kindness
Or a word of discontent.

As you close your eyes in slumber,
Do you think that the Savior will say,
"You have earned one more today."
By the deeds you've done today."

Is there anyone to utter a kindly word of you?
Can you say in parting as the day has slipped past,
That you helped a single stranger of the many you passed?

Is there anyone rejoicing over what you did or said?
Does the one who's hope was fading
Now with courage look ahead?
